Submitting a CDCN job application, discussing employment with CDCN team members, and/or referring to CDCN materials does not create, imply, or guarantee a contract of employment. Any employment relationship can be changed only if it's in writing and signed by a CDCN executive. If employed, I understand CDCN benefits, policies and procedures can change without notice.

I authorize investigation of all statements shared in this application. I understand if I make false statements, my employment with CDCN can be terminated with or without notice. I authorize CDCN to contact all schools, previous employers, references, and others in my resume. I release CDCN from any liability because of such contact.

To comply with the Fair Credit Reporting Act, CDCN may request a consumer reporting agency to provide an investigative report which may include information on your character, reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living. You can request in writing to CDCN to see information contained in such report.

I understand employment with CDCN starts with a 180-day probationary period, during which employee or CDCN may terminate employment at will.

Consumer Direct Care Network is an equal opportunity employer.
Thank you for completing this application and for your interest in our company.
